1. Volunteer agreement

This is an Agreement between: the volunteer listed in the SCHEDULE A (referred to in this document as 'the volunteer' or 'you') and THRIVE Project (sometimes referred to in this document as 'we'). This Agreement is intended to be legally binding between us and it may be cancelled at any time by either us or you with due notice. See section 16 for more details.

2. Governing law of this agreement

This agreement is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by the laws of the state of Queensland and shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Queensland. If any clause or provision of this agreement be held to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity of such clause or provision shall not otherwise affect the remaining provisions which shall continue to be enforceable.

3. Your engagement as a volunteer

Your engagement at THRIVE Project is as a volunteer. This means that in all aspects of your engagement, you will perform all duties on a voluntary basis, and you will not receive remuneration or payment for your work, other than reasonable reimbursement of expenses (see below clause 11). You start date, hours per week, role, and other relevant details is contained in the SCHEDULE A: DESCRIPTION OF ENGAGEMENT AND CONCORDANCE section of this agreement. You are required to abide by these terms, including providing any deliverables as reasonably explained in the training materials.

Neither THRIVE Project or the volunteer intend any employment or contractual relationship for paid work or services to be created (i.e. you are not an employee, independent contractor or consultant). If this changes at any time, and there is a possibility that you might undertake paid work for the organisation or be involved in vocational training, we will discuss this and document the arrangement in a formal employment contract, contract for services or other arrangement.

Furthermore, your engagement with us may be reported to the relevant councils, government, sponsors, and/or funding bodies in order to support our activities and provide access to funded opportunities.

4. What you can expect when volunteering

THRIVE Project values its volunteers and we will endeavour to provide you with:

- a written description of the nature of your engagement and the tasks you are authorised to perform;
- access to resources required to, for the most part, complete your tasks, such as email, collaboration and project management, file storage, and publishing tools;
- an induction, orientation, and any training necessary for your engagement;
- a safe environment in which to perform the tasks you are engaged for;
- respect for your privacy, including keeping your private information confidential;
- a supervisor, so that you have the opportunity to ask questions and get feedback (see below clause 6);
- reimbursement for your reasonable expenses so you are not out-of-pocket as a result of volunteering (see below clause 11);
- you will be required to complete an activity report (AR) on a weekly basis which details your achievements along the way and may contribute as credit;
- you will be formally acknowledged for your contributions in THRIVE Project.

5. What THRIVE Project asks of its volunteers

We ask that you:

6. Contact person

Your initial contact person at THRIVE Project will be provided to you upon joining. If you have any questions or concerns about your engagement with us, your health and safety, or if there is any assistance you need to help you undertake the tasks you are engaged for, please contact Human Resources at hr@strive2thrive.earth as soon as possible.

7. Description and details of your engagement

We ask that you only perform duties you are authorised to perform, always operate under the direction and supervision of THRIVE Project's staff and obey reasonable directions and instructions. This is particularly important for health, safety and insurance reasons (see below clause 8).

The nature of your engagement with us, time commitment, and roster are outlined below. It is important that you only perform the tasks outlined below and that you follow the instructions of the Project Lead and other THRIVE Project personnel.

If you are unsure whether a particular task or work is part of your engagement with us, or who you can and can't receive directions and instructions from, please don't hesitate to talk to your contact person.

8. The health and safety of you and others

At THRIVE Project, volunteer health and safety, and the health and safety of everyone who is involved in our organisation, is a priority. THRIVE Project has safety obligations towards:

- you in your capacity as a volunteer at THRIVE Project, and
- the people that you interact with as a part of your engagement as a volunteer.

It is important to understand that you may be personally liable (that is legally or financially responsible) for any harm or damage caused to yourself or others if you act outside of the description of your engagement with us, outside of the instructions given to you or you are affected by drugs or alcohol when you are volunteering.

It's therefore important that you only perform the tasks in the description of your engagement with us, and that you follow the instructions of your contact person and THRIVE Project's staff.

In the state of Queensland, the Civil Liability Act 2003 (QLD) applies. There may be other legal actions that apply (such as negligence claims) and it is paramount that workplace health and safety issues are always considered. Under the Act and other laws, THRIVE Project has a duty of care to minimise risks to everyone affected by its conduct.

As a volunteer, you may also have duties under the Civil Liability Act, which include:

We may sometimes provide you with other benefits as part of your work as a volunteer (examples include training, free food, accommodation, event entry, clothing, or equipment).
